Crucifixion was a terrible death. The Romans wanted people to fear them. But Jesus would change crucifixion from something scary to something beautiful.

So many who followed Jesus were so sad when he died. Jesus felt as if God had forgotten him, too.

Crucifixion

Mark 15

It was a sad, scary day. Jesus was arrested. The soldiers took him, and put him in a ragged purple robe, and made a crown of sticky thorns for his head. They laughed at him and teased him.

Then they took Jesus to a place named Golgotha, which means "place of the skull." They crucified him, which was a horrible way to die. Then they rolled dice to see who would get his clothes. They made a sign to mock him, calling him King of the Jews.

At three in the afternoon, Jesus cried out, "My God, why have you forgotten me?" People around him thought Jesus was talking to Elijah. They wondered if Elijah would come save him. But just then, Jesus cried out, and then he died.

The curtain of the temple was torn from top to bottom when Jesus died. When the centurion saw Jesus had died, he said, "Truly, this was God's son."

Great Big Word

Crucify

To put someone to death by hanging them on a cross.

TICTACTOE

Nice Quote!

Our salvation comes through a symbol of death and disappointment.
