

Did'ja Know?

People who are generous generally live happier lives. They often live longer than people who are selfish!

Color the pictures of kids sharing. Draw another example of being generous in the space below.

August 9, 2020

2 Corinthians Series
Generosity

2 Corinthians 8:1-15

Paul traveled all over, sharing the story of Jesus. He wrote a letter to his friends in a city called Corinth.

“Dear Friends,” he wrote, “the best way to reach out and share the good news of Jesus is to be generous.”

Atreus frowned. “What does he mean by that?”

“Paul means that we can share what we already have been given. God provides us with time, talents, and money. We can share this too!”

“But I don’t have a lot to share,” Atreus said.

They kept reading the letter. “If you share out of love, whatever you can give is enough. So if you have a lot, you will give a lot. And if you have only a little to give, you will still have enough.”

Generosity

When someone is kind and not selfish.
A willingness to share things with others.

August 9, 2020

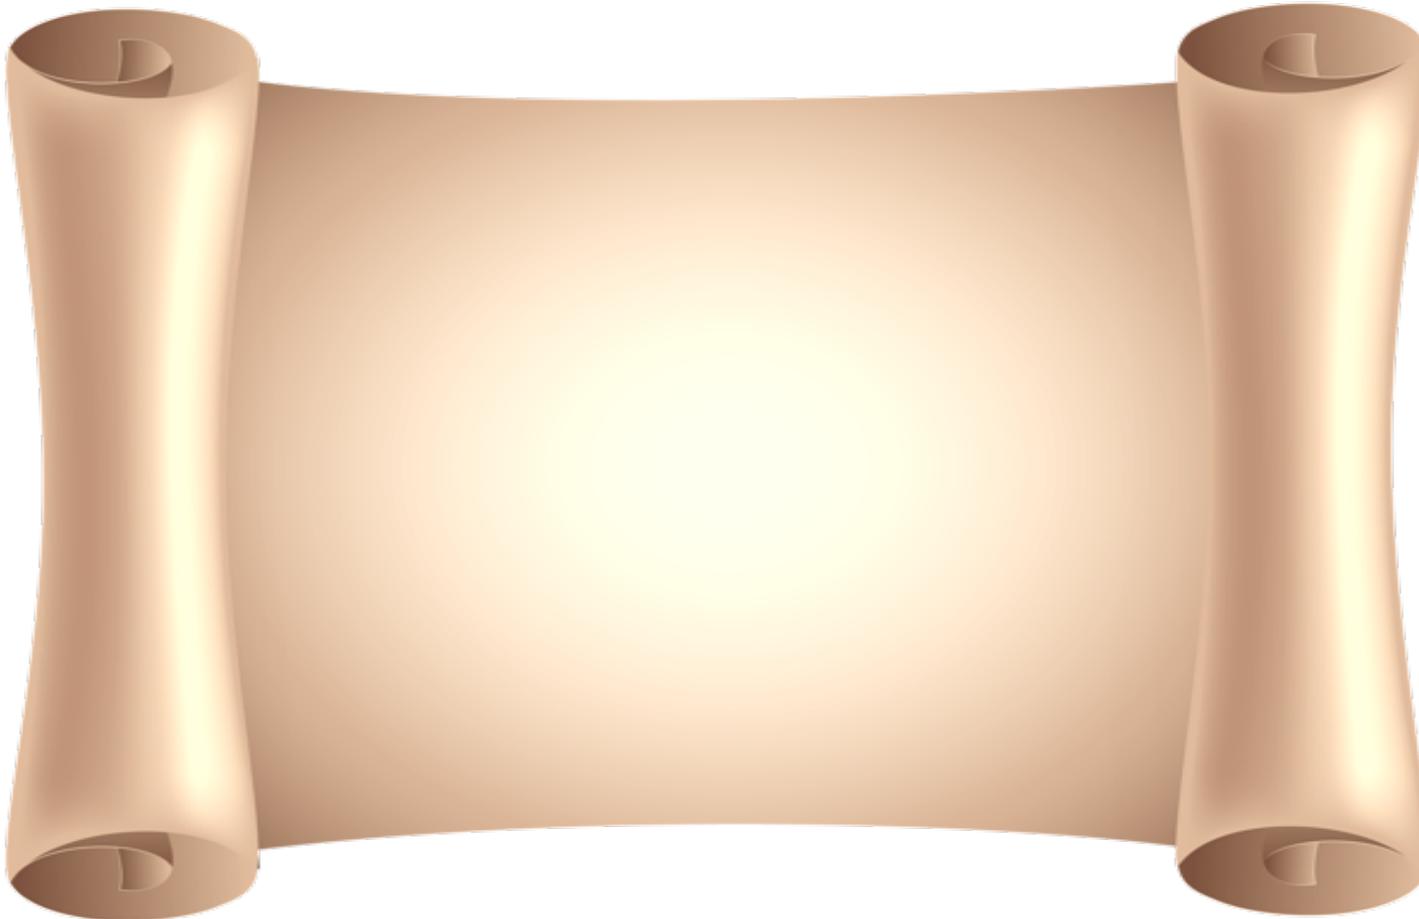

Fun Stuff

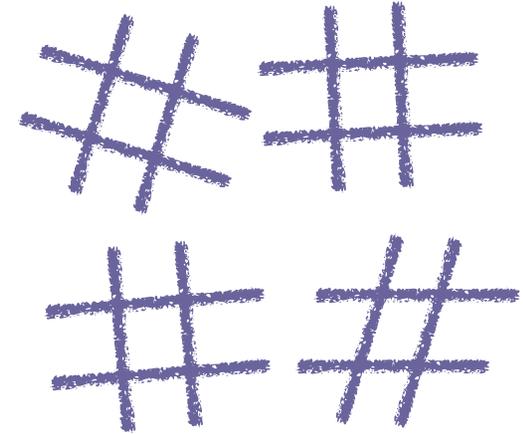

Scroll Time (FiLL iT Up!)

Another way to be generous is giving your attention to someone. Writing a letter or drawing a picture for them says that you care.

Write a letter or draw a picture to someone you care about.

TICTACTOE

Nice Quote!

The most truly generous persons are those who give silently without hope of praise or reward.

– Carol Brink, Author

Try it At Home

Set aside some money to give to your congregation each week. Even if it's not much, every bit helps. Practicing generosity is something you can improve on, too!

MORE

Fun Stuff