

Did'ja Know?

Everyone dreams! Scientists think that dreams serve as a way for our brains to "reboot" and sort out the stuff you learned while you're awake.

Color the Prophet Joel speaking God's Word to the people. Better yet, draw in an audience for him and include yourself in the picture!

Joel 2:12-13, 28-29

God's people had turned away from worshiping God, and lots of terrible things had happened to them. They were very sad.

God sent his prophet, Joel, to comfort the people.

"Come back to God," Joel cried. "No matter what you've done, show that you're sorry and God will forgive you."

"Really?" asked a woman, wiping her tears.

"Yes!" said Joel. "And not only that!"

A man's eyes grew wide. "What else?" he asked.

Joel said, "God will send the Spirit into all people, so everyone will be able to speak God's words in love."

"Wow!" the people said. "You have given us hope, Joel!"

Memory Verse

Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

- Joel 2:28

THE MESSAGE GOES ON. YAY!

Old phones used to look like this! Funny!

Try It At Home

This week, call someone you haven't spoken with in a while on the telephone. It can be a relative, or even an old friend you'd like to chat with again. Make sure to ask what they're doing for Christmas!
